
Roosevelt Flays Republican Administration with Prohibition Broadside

BOURBON BARRAGE MAKES DIRECT HOOVER SLAM

Democratic Liquor Plank in Platform Under Debate

SEA GIRT, N. C., Aug. 29.—Praising temperance as "one of the cardinal virtues" and labeling the eighteenth amendment as a "stupor blunder," Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt delivered yesterday what party leaders called his "prohibition broadside." He termed the Republican plank, long ambiguous, "insulting."

"Once upon a time," he told his vast audience, "an orator who was describing the scenery of his state remarked that in the north it was 'mountainous' and that in the south it was 'humid.'"

"That classic description reminds me of the Republican national platform of this year—high and dry in one end, and in the other end 'increasing moisture.'"

PLAIN AND CLEAR
The presidential nominee described the Democratic prohibition plank as "no plain and clear statement that no one could doubt its meaning."

"First attack against President Hoover and his acceptance speech," Roosevelt said.

"To anyone who will read the prohibition plank in the Republican platform and the remarks of the president on the question of prohibition, the difficulty under which the present laborers will be made obvious. The reason for his use of meaningless words will be clear."

"It is the difficulty that always attends suffering," he said, "and attempting to conceal that fact by the use of polysyllabic words."

"That statement can be better understood than that of the president's own statement that 'I have always sympathized with the prohibition plank of the 10th amendment.'"

"Does that spell out the support of the dry?"

PRESIDENT PLAYED
In the acceptance speech, Roosevelt continued the president's "prohibition play," and took the position of the Democratic party.

In this connection, he said, "an attempt had been made to mislead the people of this country."

"The Democratic standard bearer, then accused Republican leaders of trying 'a dry horse,' with one eye on the vote and the other on either foot 'on the dry horse.'"

"The speaker of the Republican 'dry' will be the president of the same," he said, "in 1936 in New York."

"Thousands packed the parade grounds near the 'Little White House' as the New York governor delivered the second major speech of his campaign."

"The Democratic nominee devoted practically his entire speech to prohibition."

Fishermen from the fishing grounds also reported seeing the plane, but they noted nothing unusual except that it was "flying very fast."

Now five days out of Harbor Grace, Lee and Buckton have been given up for lost by the shipping around the airport, from which a note of appreciation for their rescue has been taken during the last few years. There is a tone of hope, however, that they yet may be picked up by a passing ship in the foggy, stormy sea.

They Escaped Fate

Their faces sober with the realization of the tragic fate which they narrowly escaped, the only survivors among the officers and crew of the French submarine Prothiere are shown here during memorial services held in honor of their comrades who met death in the disaster. High government officials took part as a band of men pronounced and flowers were strewn over the ship, off Cherbourg, where the submarine was foundered.

Lawrence Drebert Captures Two Biggest Prizes at Winnipeg

WINNIPEG, Aug. 29.—Lawrence Drebert, a 16-year-old boy, captured the two biggest prizes at the annual championship of the Model Aircraft League of Canada which ended here Saturday.

It was the second year the young model builder came out on top of the list of competitors. The junior champion had won the title in 1931.

Victor R. Hall of Vancouver placed third in the senior class model competition.

The failure of these meetings for 200000 model builders and their families to return to work when the "hoi polloi" called for relief work was a disappointment.

Ex-Premier Bruce Visions Hope For Desperate World

Cabinet Meeting Causes Great Interest—India Woes Aired

YORK, Aug. 29.—Expressing his belief that the forthcoming economic conference at London presents "a real hope to a distracted and almost desperate world," Stanley Bruce, former Prime Minister of Australia, declared in an address here last night that he would not be a complete failure at the conference.

Mr. Bruce, who embarked yesterday for London where he will take over the duties of high commissioner to Australia, and at the same time the British Empire took steps to promote trade between themselves but it was recognized that the conference would be a complete failure at the conference.

What was done at Ottawa, he declared, constituted a basis which, if applied in a wider sphere, would materially assist in a restoration of world peace.

Four cabinet ministers were absent from the meeting for the first time since the outbreak of the war. Sir Philip Cunliffe-Light, secretary of the Admiralty, was still in Canada; Sir Hon. Walter Runciman, who arrived at Liverpool yesterday, was still in the United Kingdom; and Sir Hon. George Curzon, minister for agriculture, who has been in the United Kingdom since the outbreak of the war.

HOLLYWOOD, Aug. 28.—(From filmland): The world may be a larger place to a bold boy like Bing Crosby and Guy Lombardo, but not to motion picture studio men. Consequently Guy and his band aren't being invited to the wedding, slated for the following week, which has been set for and of a sudden in studio town. Crack-up Was Introduction Of Johnson In Perfect Sky-Trail Romance

Things Happen Quickly To Folk Who Fly Skies

Course of Life and Love May be Turned Quickly as Banking of Plane

By PAUL HARRISON

NEW YORK, Aug. 29.—Things happen quickly to people who fly. The course of life, or even love, may be turned as swiftly as the banking of a plane.

So it was with James Allan Mollison, hero of the first westward solo crossing of the Atlantic who now is eager to fly back to his bride-to-be in England.

When the young Scot noted down his plans for a triumphal first landing at Cape Town last March, having set a record for the trip from London, he had no idea that the next few seconds were to bring him both a crack-up and the beginning of a romance.

However, Mollison did everything the runway and smooth his ship. And one of the first to greet him as he climbed out of the cockpit was Miss Amy Johnson.

TWO OF THE BEST

For Mollison, it was a rather humiliating first meeting with England's greatest woman flyer. He could only grin sheepishly as she said, "I'm awfully glad that you weren't hurt."

Any man was glad ever since it was not long after that their engagement was announced. She came to be in Cape Town during a hazardous air trip. Engine following her record-breaking solo flights between London and Australia and London and Tokyo. Mollison also made a 10,000-mile flight to Australia, breaking the previous record of 10,000 miles set by Mollison's work by seven days. So they had plenty to talk about.

Shortly before, when he had taken off from London, Mollison had revealed his engagement to Miss Daisy Neill, daughter of the Countess Cowley. But nothing more was heard publicly of that affair after the flyer reached Cape Town.

AMY'S DETERMINED CAREER

Like every other Briton, he knew the story of Amy Johnson—how she quit her secretary's job in London to take secret flying lessons only three years before, how she gave up dancing and tennis and swimming to devote every minute to putting on over airplane motors and taking long, hard, and perilous journeys. During her welcome in Australia she had soundly slapped a man who tried to kiss her. She seemed to care nothing at all for public admiration.

So perhaps Mollison was a little surprised to find that Amy Johnson was very feminine at heart and a devoted flirt. Before he left South Africa he had mentioned the possibility of an Atlantic flight. But by the time they met again in London she was making public protest against any engagement which might lead to another hazardous flight.

After they had announced their engagement, in May, Mollison wrote her his plans for a solo trip to New York. Miss Johnson said firmly: "I won't go alone if I have anything to say about it."

There was almost a rift in the air. And pledged themselves not to undertake any more dangerous flights. This pledge had to be renewed frequently, for they both showed themselves planning new conquests of the air.

TEARS AT THE TAKE-OFF

Finally Amy Johnson, in her husband's solo flight, and went with him to Ireland to prepare for it. Before he started the first engine in London to get him some long broken under. When he took off, the plane which carried the heart's content, became a tearful one. The westward sea the woman who herself had faced death a hundred times gave way to a flood of tears.

"The flying brigadier was a tearful man," she said. "If he lands safely at Croydon, he says they'll plan to do their adventures together after this."

THOSE RED SOX ARE PICKING UP

Tail Enders Break Even With Cleveland

BOSTON, Aug. 29.—The Cleveland Indians and the Boston Red Sox yesterday divided a twin ball at Fenway Park, Cleveland edged out a 10 to 1 victory in the first game and the Sox pulling out a 3 to 2 win in 11 innings in the second game.

The Indians were to work with a well on pitchers Wladimir in the first game and they drove him in the showers in the first. Jim Weaver knocked score board showing seven runs.

That broke up a record for the Sox when he pulled out for a round trip with one out and the score tied in the last half of the first.

First game—Cleveland 10, Boston 1. Wladimir, Boston; and Connolly, Cleveland.

Second game—Cleveland 3, Boston 2. Wladimir, Boston; and Connolly, Cleveland.

The island of Ceylon, with an area about the size of West Virginia, has a population estimated at 3,000,000.

Two Famous In Aviation

He planned to make an early return trip by air to join his bride of a few weeks, Amy Johnson (left), who first won aviation fame by a solo flight from England to Australia.

ALL-STARS LOSE TO AUSTRALIANS

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 29.—The touring Australian cricket 11 had another workout Saturday under sunny California skies. The visitors defeated a picked southern California team, 111 to 112.

The Californians were given permission to use 18 batsmen. Darkie Smith, captain of the Australians, apparently headed for a record score. They had just two wickets and Don Bradman was at bat.

The play of Stan McCabe of the Australian team featured the day. He scored 83 runs and accomplished the unusual feat of retiring three times in the same innings.

Bradman was with the way to overtake McCabe with 40 runs when darkness set in.

Don Bradman, captain of the local team, was his star scoring 67 runs before he was dismissed. Capt. Victor Richardson, of the Aussies, was caught out by E. Wright.

Before the game the Australians were taken on a tour of Hollywood's motion picture studios. They remain here until Tuesday when they return to San Francisco, prior to their game at Sarnia Lake today.

The Aussies played the game of the local team, was his star scoring 67 runs before he was dismissed. Capt. Victor Richardson, of the Aussies, was caught out by E. Wright.

PLAYERS TO BE INVITED TO ROYAL ALL-STARS

FANS OF BILL LEWIS

One of the busiest men in the city over the week-end was Bill Lewis, manager of the Chicago Blackhawks of the National Hockey League, now in the city on his annual summer business visit.

Between interviewing and dictating with hockey players, and receiving many old friends of the days when he played hockey here with Kenney McEwen, Lewis and operated Joe Simpson's skating rink, the dapper William has had little time for anything else.

But his visit here has already been successful, and he is expected to be even more so before he leaves for the east again, which will probably be tonight. At least one of the players he has talked over in the city, the left-winger of Barney Stanley's junior team, is a Blackhawk, and he may sign Art Wiebe, junior defenseman, some time today.

In addition to this, he completed his arrangements with Roger Jenkins and Louis Holmes, two local players who are on the Chicago roster, and took a few days to camera this morning for a picture with Emil Haman, who has been playing with Tulsa Oilers.

Some of the gridiron performers who will be seen in action here this fall, had their first work-out of the year over the week-end, and this week with probably some of them down to serious business.

There will be little time to waste from now on, and little of it will be wasted, as the management is determined to put a strong club on the field this coming season.

If you're looking over the big league results today, you will see that Chicago took a big step towards their goal of a National League pennant by winning three straight games from New York on Saturday and Sunday.

Seems that little can stop the team from now on.

Ross Henderson, of Calgary, former varsity gridiron star, who is now with B. J. Henderson's organization, was here Saturday in the capacity of a scout agent for the western tour of the Royals and Toronto Maple Leafs this fall.

Henderson is enthusiastic over the tour and is anxious to see it prove successful.

He brought some special news to a couple of former varsity athletes now living in Calgary. Arthur McMillan, former star of the U. of A. hockey team, and the senior league player, 1922-23-24, became a beneficiary of two special prizes of honor, while "Red" Watson, who played with the Varsity grid and later with the Calgary Tigers, will march to the front next month.

And when I recall that "Red" Watson, one-time halfback, was married three years ago, and that it would seem that this must be a case of a man who has been in the game for a long time, it is not surprising that he is still in the game.

PLANS MADE FOR TOUR OF PRO SQUADS

Montreal and Toronto Ball Teams to Play Here End of September

Final arrangements for the appearance here of the Montreal Royals and Toronto Maple Leafs of the International Baseball League during the course of their Western Canadian tour this fall were completed here on Saturday when Ross Henderson, of Calgary, advised agent and tour manager, Conrad Roth, officials of the Senior Amateur Baseball League.

The teams will play one and probably two games in the city at the end of September.

These two teams are Canada's only professional baseball clubs and as they are sent to the big league calibre and have many players belonging to big league teams, some of these line-up will be in the 15 games they will play on the tour.

Announced that the members of the teams will play ball every night they are on the field, according to Henderson, it is in the fact that the tour is being made under the sanction of Jack Johnston, of Mountain Landis, high commissioner of the game.

It is to do this, the tour's first of the season is to be held in the city.

Each club will carry eight regular players, including a player manager, four pitchers and one utility man, in addition to the trainer of the Royals who will look after the training of both teams.

Quarter-finals Reached in Tournament at Glenora Club

Favorites for the most part ran true in the opening rounds of the annual Glenora Tennis club invitation tournament, now in progress at the club's courts on Wednesday.

It is proposed to play the "eights" matches on Monday, the semi-finals on Tuesday and the finals of both men's and women's singles on Wednesday.

Fraser Goddard struck a lofty hurdle in the youthful Andy "Shorty" Purcell, junior hockey star, Fraser, one of the greatest of tennis, carried no fear for the aspiring Andy who proceeded to open up a concentrated barrage that won him the first set at 6-4.

The loss of the first set was something of a setback to Fraser, but when he lost the two games of the second set, no upset of major significance loomed up.

However, Goddard managed to extricate himself from this unenviable position and swept through 12 successive games for the match.

Nacmme Team Arrives To Commence Series With Cadomin

Claiming a stronger team than last year's nine, Tom Lett and his Nacmme Athletics arrived in town late last night for a two-night rest before they took on with Frank Lewis' Cadomin Miners tomorrow in the first game of the series for the annual Junior championship of Alberta.

The Soxmen were not past up any opportunity to keep themselves on edge and, on their way to the hotel, they stopped at the hotel and had a little rest before they took on with Frank Lewis' Cadomin Miners tomorrow in the first game of the series for the annual Junior championship of Alberta.

A New Menace

In little circles there today's there's a new "menace" for the boys to talk about. He is Isidoro Gatanza, a heavy-weight from Buenos Aires, with aspirations towards bowling over every opposition to earn a shot at the heavyweight title. He's now in the States and surprised with a one-round knockout of Charley Retzlaff recently.

LOUIS TRUDEL SIGNS TO PLAY WITH CHICAGO

Art Wiebe May Also Join Blackhawks—Tobin to See Emil Hansen

At least one more and possibly three, hockey players from the Edmonton district will next winter wear the spangles of the Chicago Blackhawks.

Louis Trudel, the flying Frenchman, who started during the past two years with the Pooleys, was signed by the Blackhawks by William Tobin, the canny Chicago manager.

Art Wiebe, hockey defencer star of the Pooleys, will likely sign a contract early today and Emil Hansen, who played with Tulsa Oilers of Camrose, is also expected to sign today.

On HAWK RESERVE LIST

Wiebe has been the "apple" of Tobin's eye for some months. It was rumored that a Boston contract, but it was not to be. Tobin, the canny Chicago manager, is already on the Hawks' reserve list and so if the young man signs, it will be with Chicago or no other team.

Consider the fact that he has youth and everything on his side. Wiebe should be fairly easy to bring a bang-up job for the Hawks. He has ample experience, as with the sale of Cy Wentworth, the Hawks may be needing defencemen.

In the case of Hansen, he has been a member of the Tulsa Oilers, which team operated in the American Hockey League, an outgrowth organization. Hansen is endeavoring good graces of the National Hockey League, and if he is successful, he should be a valuable hockey player and a strong defenceman.

Tobin is a sweet old Trudel. He is confident that the Frenchman will be a most satisfactory performer. He is confident that the Frenchman will be a most satisfactory performer.

California Pair Wreck Hopes Of Allison-Van Ryn Team In Net Doubles

CAOST YOUTHS HAND RAILS BAD TRIMMING

Vines and Gledhill Are New Doubles Champions

BROOKLINE, Mass., Aug. 29.—A California team formed yesterday by the request of Edwina Vines and Keith Gledhill, secured the championship here of Walter Allison and Johnny Van Ryn, in 30 minutes flat in the 3rd national doubles final Saturday at Longwood.

Allison and Van Ryn, who were under a terrific handicap as they set out to defend their title against the west coast youngsters, just a week ago, while they were still rebuilding over their notable defeat in the 1st round, were the California pair for the Newport Casino and were promptly ousted in the first round.

BAD TRIMMING. Vines and Gledhill piled up a total of 100 points in 20 as they bludgeoned through the west coast pair together 30 minutes flat to 21 and left their errors down to 20 against 40.

The defending champions were defeated even in their service games. They were broken seven times in the match. Van Ryn and Allison were, and were never in a position to return their own delivery when it came to the net.

The match in Vines' racket, however, was short-lived, for he and Gledhill were broken by the California pair in the first round. Vines and Gledhill were broken by the California pair in the first round. Vines and Gledhill were broken by the California pair in the first round.

J. D. E. and Arnold Jones of Providence, who have an unfortunate record in the national doubles championships, were the fifth and sixth seeds in the match. Vines and Gledhill were broken by the California pair in the first round.

DECIDED HOIST TO WHEAT VALUES IN PIT TODAY

WINNIEP. Aug. 29.—Unfavorable harvesting weather, light shipments and continued heavy demand for wheat in Liverpool gave a decided boost to wheat values in the pit today. Closing prices were 2 1/2 cents above the previous day's closing.

October closed at 27 1/2 December at 28 1/2 and May at 30 1/2.

A fall export trade was reported worked over the weekend and during the morning lot in estimate, a weak rise lack of selling pressure was a feature of the trade but there was nevertheless some good buying for export and the market was said to be quite appreciable.

Unfavorable harvesting weather in western Canada is delaying harvesting and the movement of new wheat to market, with the result that buying pressure is considerably less than would be the case had the rains been so good.

Work will be delayed for some days by a large action of the country and wheat may suffer to some extent in the market, however, and large quantities of wheat have been advanced without values being given.

Liverpool reports practically no competition against Canadian wheat and a broadening demand for Manitoba wheat with the domestic market. Only the bulk of the weekly shipments report movement for the week ending 27-28 August was 1,700,000 bushels of which 1,200,000 bushels came from North America.

There was a good demand for cash wheat at 27 1/2 cents in better for the week. The market was said to be in a strong position. In the futures market, the market was said to be in a strong position.

Gone Are Days Of Old Horse Doctor; Veterinary Modern

Red Nose, Vile Cigar and
Walrus Moustache
All Gone

VANCOUVER, B.C., Aug. 28.—The old-time horse doctor with a red nose, a vile cigar, a walrus moustache—and possibly a smart goatee—a galloping horse of gold dangled from a heavy link chain across his waist, a horsehouse for a tie-up and a strong smell of horse and tobacco all over his general self, is gone forever from the scene.

There are cobwebs on his bottles of ointments on the shelf in the office of the village livery stable. The smart livery boy, who once drove him long since been a heap of wreckage in the back lot.

Official notice of the passing of the old-time horse doctor was conveyed to the annual convention of the Northwest Veterinary Association by Mrs. Olen, M.M., Duncan, B.C., recently. Mrs. Olen, graduate nurse from the Vancouver General Hospital, went to Vancouver Island some years ago to become the bride of Dr. M. L. Olen, veterinarian of Duncan.

John Capone
Isn't Feeling
Depression

LOUDEST APPLAUSED

Mrs. Olen's paper on "The Relationship between the Veterinarian and his Clientele" was loudly applauded by several scores of well-dressed, business professional veterinarians from Washington, Oregon and British Columbia. Most of those attending the convention were university graduates. Among them was Dr. M. L. Olen, of Duncan, husband of Mrs. Olen, who was well known to livestock men as the owner of the village champagne vine, "La France's Princess."

Mrs. Olen pleaded for a status for the veterinary profession, that of the physician or lawyer. She pointed out that the veterinary profession was the duty of the profession and in the modern veterinary was going to work for society as a great value as any at present profession by the medical profession. Modern veterinary science was saving the lives of the people and conserving health by prevention of diseases and of evils which are usually common.

One way or another, gangsters are surviving the depression, for when John Capone, above, 28-year-old brother of "Scarface" Al, was picked up while loitering on a Chicago street corner, he had $3,000 in his pocket. John and Roscoe Senna, Al's former body guard, who was arrested with him, were turned over to Federal authorities now seeking new indictments against Al and 200 henchmen in an alleged $100,000,000 liquor conspiracy.

Spelled from the animal kingdom to the human family, the veterinarian must be dignified by the medical profession. Modern veterinary science was saving the lives of the people and conserving health by prevention of diseases and of evils which are usually common.

PARTNERSHIP ACT UNDER REVIEW

CALGARY, Aug. 28.—Conference of commissioners on uniformity of legislation, in its fifteenth annual session here, Saturday reviewed one of the most important matters to come before the meeting, the partnership registration act.

The conference, called by J. D. Faldridge, K.C., dean of Osgoode Hall, Toronto, also approved a draft of the uniform foreign judgments act, which dealt with jurisdiction of courts on defendants not resident in the local of the court.

The partnership act in draft, was presented by R. P. Hartley, Esq., deputy attorney general of New Brunswick. Discussion was unfinished when his conference adjourned and the act will probably be reviewed during Monday's conference.

Tariff Smasher Calls For Halt

WASHINGTON, Aug. 28.—Assailing tariffs of the United States and declaring the Ottawa trade agreement "slashing United States trade to the tune of one to three hundred million dollars" were prompted by self-preservation," Senator Cordell Hull, Democrat, Tennessee, Sunday the United States was duty-bound to ask a halt in the "wild increase of tariffs" at the coming world economic conference.

Production of sulphuric acid in Canada in 1931 amounted to 119,541 tons compared with 107,252 tons in 1930. Eight of the fourteen factories producing it are in Ontario.

At another point in her address, Mrs. Olen could not but laugh when she said: "It is true that even a valuable addition to a test."

Mrs. Olen's address became technical when she said: "The law of cleanliness in handling surgical instruments." She declared that the veterinarian must be "fanatically infection-conscious, never neglecting the smallest detail in maintaining the standard technique."
